matthewhiggs2015 Anna Rubin 'The Gram', 2024. Video. 26 minutes. At Maxwell Graham. 😊 This is among the best video works I have ever seen. If I collected art I would buy this. (Edition of 5 + 2APs.) I would really recommend watching the whole 26 minutes, and ideally from the start, and the ending is great. Spoiler alert: the video was made by a homing pigeon fitted with a small digital camera and shows the bird's passage from midtown to its home in the Bronx. (You get a glimpse of the pigeon reflected in a puddle towards the end!) MoMA should buy this work and have it on semi-permanent display! 😊 #annarubin @misshurrybringit @maxwellgrahamgallery
